

Explosion Invites the Watts Foundation & Everett Chamber to Saturday's Game

MONROE, Wash. – May 27, 2008 – The Snohomish County Explosion will be hosting Watts Foundation Night and Everett Area Chamber Night this Saturday, May 31 when they play their first game of the season against the Las Vegas Stars at 7:15pm.

The Watts Foundation is a youth basketball organization coached by Explosion shooting guard Donald Watts and co-founded by legend Donald "Slick" Watts. The Foundation offers camps and clinics emphasizing the importance of ball handling, shooting, scoring and other fundamentals of the game.

"The Watts Foundation's goal is to create a culture that will reinforce all of the positive qualities of our community while distracting our children from the negative influences," said Slick Watts. "We strongly believe that the discipline and focus that is learned through participating in a team sport...will help our children overcome the obstacles they face."

All members of the Watts Foundation will receive tickets at a discounted price for Saturday night's game against the Las Vegas Stars.

This Saturday's game is also Everett Area Chamber of Commerce Night! All Everett Area Chamber members will receive their discounted tickets at the door or while purchasing tickets over the phone by mentioning their chamber membership. Visit www.everettchamber.com and click on "Events" for more information.

Explosion come away with 8 point loss in back to back road games

Monroe Washington - Edmonton Chill owner Troy Barns comes away smiling as the Chill defeated the Explosion 134-126 and Snohomish County Explosion owner Nathan Mumm now owes a carton of Washington Best Apples to be shipped out to the Chill office along with wearing the Chills uniform during the Western Conference Playoff's.

"This is going look very odd having me sit on the bench coaching with another team's jersey on but it may come in handy when we play the Chill for a sideline out of bounds play." Commented owner Mumm after the game.

The Explosion looks to rebound on the back to back losses this weekend against the Chill at home on May 31st against the Las Vegas Stars. Seats are still available by calling 425-339-BALL (2255) or at the Monroe Sports Arena Box Office starting at 5:00pm PST.