JAY ANDERSON RETURNS TO CHARGERS

Eugene, OR--Former University of Oregon star Jay Anderson has agreed to return to the Eugene Chargers for a second year. Anderson, part of Oregon's 2003 Pac-10 championship team, averaged 14.5 points and 6.6 rebounds for the Chargers last year. Anderson earned an invite to the IBL All-Star game where he scored 25 points and was the co-champion of the three point shooting contest.

Anderson, a 6-9 forward, is currently playing for Tirgu Mures team in Romania's A Division where he is averaging 17.7 points per game. He will join the Chargers in April after his European season is completed.

Eugene Chargers General Manager Carl Berman- "Jay brings offensive versatility to the Chargers. He can score from three point range as well as post up smaller defenders. We are pleased to bring Jay back to Eugene as he has many local fans who watched him play in college."

About the IBL

Two unique features distinguish the IBL from other professional basketball leagues:

1. An entertaining game. By allowing only one timeout per quarter, and reducing the time between plays with an immediate inbounds policy, IBL games are always fast and entertaining. IBL teams average 127 points per contest; just as important—games last only two hours.

2. Extremely low travel costs. The IBL promises a maximum of one trip per season requiring air travel. This 'one flight guarantee' that teams enjoy promotes financial health and longevity for IBL teams. In fact, all 17 teams completed the first IBL season (the 2005 season); as well, all 24 teams completed the 2006 season.

The IBL is now heading into the third year of play with tip-off in mid March of 2007.
